THE MINISTER OF HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT (SHRI ARJUN SINGH): (a) to (e) National Education Policy lays down that education will be based on a Framework having a common core including inter alia protection of environment. In fact, each of the three curricula-released in 1975, 1988 and 2000, incoroporated environmental education. Ministry of Human Resource Development (MHRD) introduced a scheme (1988-89)—environmental orientation to school education and has assisted States and NGOs. 48 NGOs, too, have benefited with a total grant of 13.83 crore w.e.f. from 1977-98 to promote environmental education. NCERT has, in June 2004, published syllabus on 'environment education in schools' after having discussions with organisations like Central Board of Secondary Education (CBSE), Kendriya Vidyalaya Sangathan (KVS) and States. The States have been asked to adapt/ adopt the syllabus. The University Grants Commission (UGC) has circulated a 'Syllabus for Environmental Studies' for undergraduate courses for its compulsory implementation in all the Universities/ Colleges of India.
